Junior promises not to chew up the house
Like the mattresses down to the springs,
Or toys, blankets, and pillows
And anyone's personal things.

It's great to see him
hang over the fence,
As he smiles and wags his tail,
What's not so great is to listen to
A hound dog's perpetual wail!

Iris promises to always be sweet
And not to let out a growl.
(At least she has a cool meow,
And not a canine howl.)

She promises not to hide in the hedge,
And make us search far and wide.
Somehow she thinks it's oh, such fun,
To run from us and hide.

Lucy promises to mind her manners,
And not buck 'til she throws her shoes,
No stealing hay from the back of the truck,
Or when she wears her mask, cry the blues.

And she's promised to be nice to Misty,
And not fuss over the fence.
She knows Misty prefers the dogs,
And the atmosphere can get tense!

8

Cupcake promises not to sneak out
And go exploring the neighborhood,
Or stroll down the middle of the street.
(It can be hard work to be good.)

He hates living in the cathouse,
Why? ... There are so many cats!
Little does he realize,
He causes all the spats!

Lilo promises to live on and on,
Though she's had 11 great years.
She knows that she brings us such laughter!
When the time comes, we'll love through tears.

10

We promise we will keep all of our vows
To give harbor to handicapped creatures,
And continue our heartfelt commitment
To those with unusual features!

Keeping our animal friends well fed each and every day is one of the most important promises that we struggle to keep. Current monthly average feed expenses are :

Dogs: $1984, Cats $2988 and Farm Animals $2002

For a monthly average total of $6974.
