JAKE

Hello, my name is Jake
(Full name, Jake from State Farm)!
I'm a happy dapple dachshund
Full of love and fun and charm.

I'm happy-go-lucky now
But once was infested with fleas,
Thin, depressed and hungry --
All I want is love, pretty please!

My right eye was in trouble
So off to Dr. Priehs I went,
If you make me well again,
I'd be so grateful, I'd pay rent!

My eye is all better now,
And I'm full of vim and vigor,
With a Great Dane personality
And a heart that's even bigger!

ATTITUDE*

Hello, my name is Attitude
(No need to tell you why).
I've already demolished a bathroom
And will bolt right through a pig sty.

I started here in Sassy's room,
Hanging out with 13 cats.
We shared toys and fuzzy pillows
And crashed on bedtime mats.

We loved and played with each other,
Until I ate all their food.
(I never will understand
Why that is considered rude!)

I was evicted to the pig pen
Where I have my private suite.
They tell me I have room to grow!
And 300 pounds is not petite.

Attitude came to us as a crippled 4-week-old piglet. After two weeks, his back legs became normal, so his a.k.a. became "Faker". He recently underwent a risky hernia surgery. Once again, our wonderful Dr. Andrade from AVS in Daytona Beach worked a miracle!*

Our new GoFundMe page

Veterinary bills are always one of our biggest expenses at Journey's End. In order to help pay for medical care for our animals, we have set up a new GoFundMe page at www.gofundme.com/JourneysEndMedical. Please check our page for photos and updates on our animals' vet care. We thank you for any help you are able to provide!

Recurring Donations

Monthly donations using automatic payments are a convenient way to donate that you can set up thru your bank or your bank's web site. These regular payments greatly help sustain our sanctuary and help us meet our costly food and other operating expenses. Our address is PO Box 220163, Glenwood FL 32722. Our deepest thanks to any new or existing supporters who choose to donate this way.

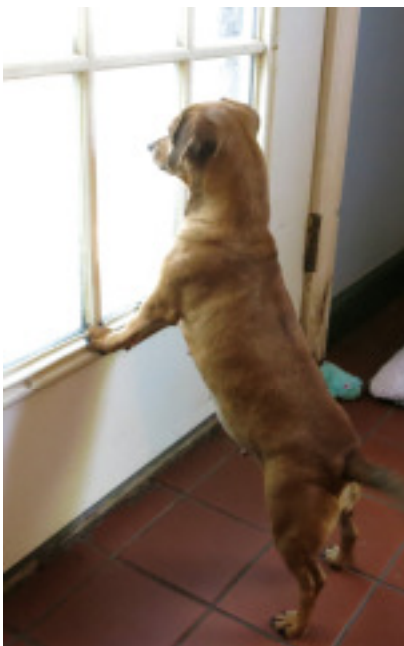

And the winning ticket is ...

Peter Cottontail

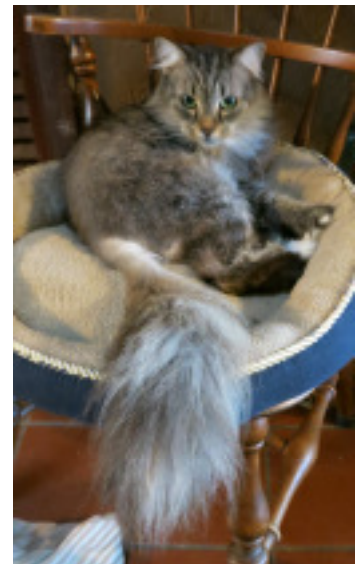

Step 2: add coleslaw

The waiting is the hardest part

Will the real Otis please stand up

Tails are for flaunting

A Message from Florence

Not everyone is aware that we typically receive over 70 phone calls every week from individuals or other rescue groups asking us to take in animals. Sadly, we are not able to accommodate these requests. Our mission and philosophy is to rescue animals in the most desperate situations, which is why we solely take in those who are living on the streets, or who have disabilities or illnesses that cause them to be considered "unadoptable." The sheer number of such animals in dire need makes it impossible for us to consider accepting animals who are currently in homes or other rescue situations. We fervently wish we could do more, but unfortunately must recognize and accept our limitations. But we dedicate all our resources to providing the best veterinary care and quality of life for our resident animals. For some, their remaining lifespan may not be long, but however long it is, at Journey's End, for the rest of their lives, they experience love and care, full bellies, and a truly safe home – some, for the very first time ever. As always, your support is the key to enabling this for so many animals who otherwise would be lost and forsaken. From their hearts and ours, thank you, thank you, thank you.

Journey's End is a non-profit 501(c)3 humane organization ensuring the lives of over 300 companion special needs animals from dogs and cats to horses and pigs! Every penny received goes to this effort and tax-deductible donations are our only income. All donors receive our newsletter.
