Jake

Hello, my name is Jake--
Jake Not from State Farm.
I'm a black Lab from West Georgia
And am full of Southern charm.

My age is twelve and my life was tough;
I lived on a rope, tied out.
I've learned now to demand blankies,
And good food, or I'm likely to pout!

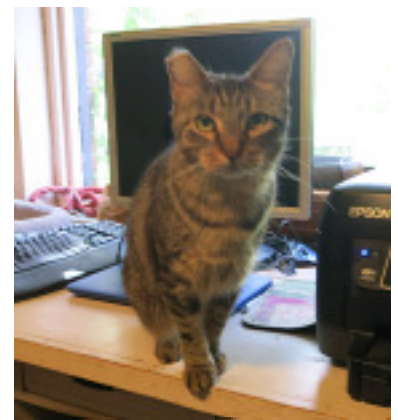

It's fun to share a luxury suite,
To always be clean and cool.
My meet-and-greet comes with perpetual treats;
That's my new steadfast rule!

My collar had to be cut from my neck,
Now bandanas make me so handsome,
Thanks, Dr. Freiberg, for sending me here,
And not even asking for ransom!

Minnie

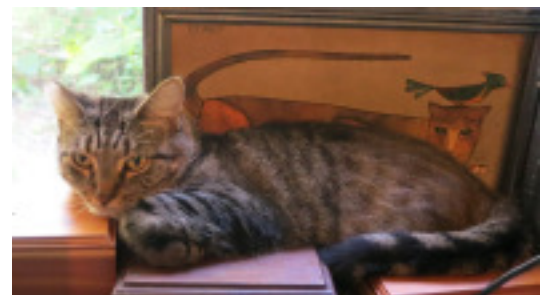

Hello, my name is Minnie,
I was a street cat with a broken leg.
Dr. Long at AVS had to amputate,
And, wow, I don't even need a peg!

My new best friend is Mickey,
He's ancient, limbs numbering four.
When he sees me jumping around with three,
He knows I don't need any more.

My other roommate is Mary Poppins,
Who doesn't know I'm a cat.
Actually, she'd love my company
Even if I were a bat or a rat.

We share the cozy computer room
With staff and friends alike.
They spend so much time in here with us,
We might charge admission tonight!

Wondering about the backstory on any of our animals or want to see more photos? Just visit our web site at www.journeysendsanctuary.org and click on the Our Animals link in the menu.

As another busy year ends, we'd like to thank our supporters for making our work possible. Your donations have provided food, shelter, and medical care for our 40+ dogs, 140 or so cats, 4 horses, 4 goats and sheep, and 3 pigs. This past year, we replaced the air conditioning system, built a new pig corral, and rebuilt the wood jungle gym on the back patio of the Cat House. We took in some special new residents, including Ralphie, Marvin, Prince, and Luca, while having to say goodbye to some others like Molly, Buddy, Smokey, and Coal. This coming year, we are planning a renovation of the Cat House, some repairs to the roof and the fencing, and most of all, to continue to provide a safe and loving home for our residents. We wish you all a wonderful Holiday season and a happy 2017, and we thank you again for your support.

Our special new resident Tiger was an outdoor cat, and one day the lady who fed her saw her get hit by a car. Tiger almost didn't survive. She had a collapsed lung, a torn diaphragm, and a broken tail that had to be amputated. She also lost the 3 kittens she had been pregnant with, and she was found to have a broken jaw, probably from a past injury. This brave little cat healed beautifully, although she still has nerve damage. She is friendly and affectionate and charms everyone she meets. She's a true survivor.

Memorial Stones

The Memorial Garden at Journey's End is a beautiful, peaceful place for quiet contemplation of the animals who have meant so much to us, and we invite anyone who visits to spend some time there. As a further way to honor or remember loved ones, both people and animals, we are now offering engraved stones that will be placed in the walkway to the Memorial Garden, for a minimum $25 donation. Each stone is approximately 8" x 12" and will have space for a short inscription of one animal's name, or a person or persons' name, and optionally a year. (Examples: "Maggie 2014", "Bill and Mary 2016", "The Donaldsons") To order, just send a check with a note including your desired inscription, or use PayPal to pay online and specify the inscription in the "Write a note" field.

If you shop on Amazon.com Journey's End is participating in the Amazon Smile program. Just start from smile.amazon.com and select Journey's End Animal Sanctuary as the charitable organization. You'll get the same great products and prices as always. Amazon will donate .5% of the sales price of eligible purchases to Journey's End, at no additional cost to you.

Horse category is just for shoeing. Food/hay for horses, goats and pigs falls under supplies.

Zachary (left) gets his cold laser treatment. The laser stimulates circulation and reduces inflammation, and seems to greatly help our older dogs like Zach.

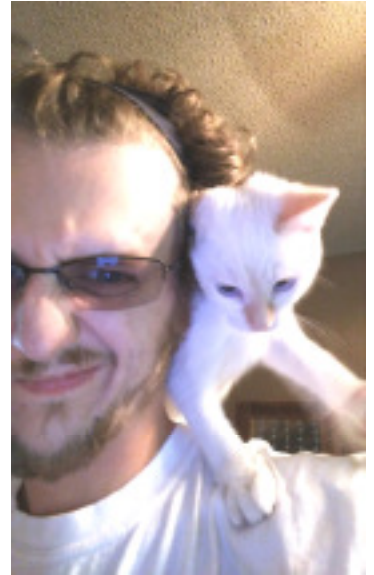

Our 2017 Journey's End calendar features photos and captions of our own very special animals, plus some background info on the story of Florence and Journey's End. The calendar is large size (8.5" x 11", suitable for wall hanging), and is printed on glossy, high-quality paper.

Each calendar is $15, plus $2.50 shipping. They make great gifts, or just keep for yourself! Order in our online store at www.journeysendsanctuary.org/onlineStore.php, or send your check to Journey's End, PO Box 220163, Glenwood FL 32722.

Donations from a traditional IRA

Recently Journey's End received a donation from a supporter who had part of their IRA Required Minimum Distribution paid directly to us. Our CPA explained that this option is open to anyone with a traditional IRA who is over 70½ years old. Neither the income amount nor the charitable deduction appears on your tax return. Your taxable income will be reduced by the amount of your contribution whether you itemize deductions or you use the generous standard deduction allowed senior citizens. You will get the equivalent of the charitable deduction either way. We are very grateful this was brought to our attention and want to share it with our supporters. Please consult your tax advisor with any further questions.
