Daisy

Hello, I'm the new kid on the block;
They decided to call me Daisy.
Everyone has a purpose here --
Mine is to drive people crazy.

My back was broken accidentally,
So I wasn't wanted anymore.
"You're not a perfect specimen," they said,
"Let us show you out the door."

I bounce around like a pogo stick
To get wherever I want to go --
A mile a minute, that's my speed;
My track time's anything but slow!

My wheels will be here any day,
And can't come soon enough.
I'll zoom and zip from here to there;
And really strut my stuff!

Just give me a map and a compass;
I'll race from Canada to Siam.
I'll fly as fast as Jet Blue does!
You'll see how speedy I am!

Hope

Hello, my name is Hope,
I'm a two-month Shepherd puppy.
My body is much bigger now;
I once was the size of a guppy.

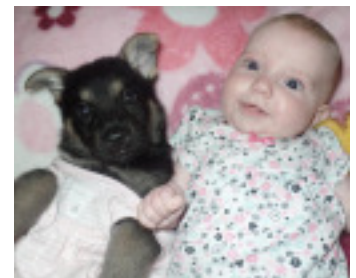

Born with useless back legs,
I was a breeder baby.
Without a rescue, I was doomed—
No ifs, ands, buts, or maybe!

But some wonderful caring people
Who decided I needed a friend,
Drove me for almost four hours
To live here at Journey's End!

I'm black and tan with velvety fur,
So silky to the touch.
Please kiss and pet me perpetually,
If that's not asking too much.

The food is great, my bed is clean,
And I get lots of rubs on my belly.
Guess who's special and loves me most?
She's my private nanny – Kelly!

Kelly has a real baby daughter;
Her name is Hope as well.
We don't know who loves
each other more;
It's really hard to tell.

And you know all about Daisy now --
She's my best canine friend!
Someday, we'll have a wheelchair race!
Happy times will never end!

We realize times are hard for many, and Journey's End is no exception. Our expenses are high and ongoing, and the sanctuary has been especially struggling in recent months; in addition, this is the time of year when donations begin to taper off, which continues throughout the summer. While we dream of someday becoming financially secure, that is not a dream that has been realized.

But Journey's End also began as a dream, and your generous support enabled the sanctuary to grow from a dream into reality. As a result, you have transformed and saved the lives of thousands of animals in desperate need. You are the only reason Journey's End has been able to remain open all these years. Our unique mission is to provide safe haven in a loving home environment for unadoptable animals, and this is possible only through your donations. Without you, we would be forced to close our doors.

Please know you have our most heartfelt gratitude for everything you have given and for whatever you are able to give now to help us continue to lovingly serve the animals of Journey's End. If you would like to donate, please visit our web site at <http://www.journeysendsanctuary.org> and click the Donate button, or go to <https://www.gofundme.com/JourneysEndMedical> to donate directly to our veterinary expense fund.

Tour of our Cat House

For those who haven't visited us, here is a brief tour of our Cat House, where most of our over 100 cats live. (P.S. We're open every Saturday from 10am – 2pm for visiting!) We're often asked if they all get along...the answer is, usually!

Our life-saving work continues! Here are some of our new residents who desperately needed a home:

Gabriel is a younger dog who was found as a hungry stray with bloody paws and skin sores. We tried sending him to a foster family, but he was too high-energy for them, and they returned him to us.

Precious is a sweet older cat whose owner had some health issues and could no longer care for her.

Pocahontas (AKA Porkahontas) was found in the woods where she had apparently been abandoned.

Thelma and Louise are a bonded pair who were abandoned.

Wondering about the backstory on any of our animals or want to see more photos? Just visit our web site at www.journeysendsanctuary.org and click on the Our Animals link in the menu.

I especially enjoy the 2 course dinners.

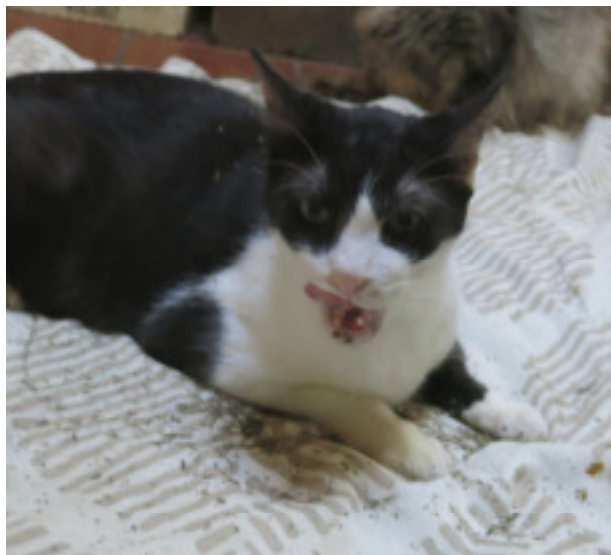

'believe that's everything.

I'm having a little trouble texting.

Lifeguard on duty.

Now, that's some great catnip!

I assure you, careful consideration has been given to this matter.

Memorial Stones

We are continuing to gather names to inscribe on the memorial stones that will be placed in the walkway to the Memorial Garden. Soon we will be doing the inscriptions and laying the stones in place. Each stone is approximately 8" x 12" and will have space for a short inscription of one animal's name, or a person or persons' name, and optionally a year. (Examples: "Maggie 2014", "Bill and Mary 2016", "The Donaldsons") To order, just send a check with a note including your desired inscription, or use PayPal to pay online and specify the inscription in the "Write a note" field.

Journey's End is a non-profit 501(c)3 humane organization ensuring the lives of over 300 companion special needs animals from dogs and cats to horses and pigs! Every penny received goes to this effort and tax-deductible donations are our only income. All donors receive our newsletter.
